Best of Transylvania - code Hu5.1RoSi

Transylvania has always been the first region in Romania to adopt western progress. Still it is in Transylvania that traditions are best preserved, "the land beyond the woods" is a place of medieval mystery in addition to the well known Dracula and ethnographic diversity – Romanian, Hungarian, German and Rroma (gipsy) traditions meet in this incredible melting pot, making up the mosaic of each of its sub-regions: the Land of Maramures, the Land of Oas, the Land of Szekely (Hungarian speaking community), the Land of Barsa, the Saxon villages around Sibiu.

DAY 1 Budapest - Satu Mare

We begin our Transylvanian adventure from Budapest. Our guide picks you up from the airport and presents to you the beautiful scenery unfolding before you. We'll end our journey in Satu Mare, dinner and accommodation in an exquisite environment.

Module: Wine tasting in Tokaj, Hungary the same wine drunken by A. Dumas's musketeers.

DAY 2 Satu Mare - Negresti Oas - Certeze - Sapanta - Sighet - Baia Mare

We begin our day in the spectacular scenery of Maramures by visiting the Open Air Ethnographic Museum in Negresti-Oas! We then head to Merry Cemetery in Sapinta, where we can also see the highest wood church in Romania. Our next stop is a communist prison. Accommodate in Baia Mare and enjoy a Maramuresean menu for dinner.

DAY 3 Baia Mare - Calinesti - Barsana - Sacel - Bistrita

The road we'll follow today is sprinkled with wood churches and very similar with the Norwegian Church road. Drive to Sacel and be the guests of the famous craftsman Grigore Tulean. From here we travel to Borgo Pass and visit Count Dracula's Castle! We will then visit the puppets exposition presented by Misiuga, Baron of Dracula in Dogarilor Tower in Bistrita. Accommodate in Bistrita. Special dinner in Jonathan Harker Saloon (the main character in Dracula novel) in Golden Crown, a folk band is performing live in the restaurant.

DAY 4 Bistrita - Cluj - Turda

Today we drive to Transylvania's capital, Cluj-Napoca, on the way we stop at Banffy Castle in Bontida. Cluj-Napoca has many things to offer: the Botany Garden, shopping session and a walk through the historic centre. Next town on our list is Turda with its impressive Salt Mines. Turzii's Gorges Reservation will offer us a nice and challenging walk. Return to Turda for accommodation and dinner with vampire menu.
